James Michael White was born and raised in Trenton, Ohio. James graduated from Shawnee State University in 2017 with a BBA, AAB in accounting and an AAB in information technology. After graduation James started working for Performance Automotive. Where he currently works as an accountant for six car dealerships in the Columbus region. James bought his current home on Wiltshire Road in the spring of 2018. Since buying his home, James as renovated the first floor and plans do the same to the rest of his nearly one-hundred-year-old home. James became a commissioner because he believes the Hilltop has the potential to become one of central Ohio best places to live and is currently working towards that goal. James is excited to bring a fresh, young mind to the commission and the community. For more information about what James is currently working on and what you can do to help please email James at jammicwhi@gmail.com.
