Brief Bio: Chris grew up in Central Ohio and has been active in the Franklinton community for the past several years. He renovates and builds properties for a living, primarily in the urban communities of Columbus, providing housing for both homeowners and renters. After becoming engaged with the Franklinton community through work and volunteer opportunities, Chris recently decided to move the neighborhood. He has attended the FAC monthly meetings regularly for the past year, and as a new resident he sought to increase his involvement in the neighborhood by serving on the Commission.
