

Maryan A. Dualle, MPH., Ph.D. Candidate.
Human Nutrition Program | College of Education and Human Ecology
The Ohio State University

Biography

Maryan Dualle is a Ph.D. candidate in the Interdisciplinary Ph.D. Program in Nutrition at The Ohio State University. She also earned her BS in Human Nutrition from OSU and MPH in Prevention Science from Emory University.

Ms. Dualle has over 15 years of public health program management and over 20 years of community engagement and advocacy. She has held multiple leadership roles in the last 15 years and is currently the Executive Director of Global Health Education Development where she has been leading state supported health and education awareness and access programs in the last 5 years including OHMAS supported mental health, substance misuse and addiction awareness, stigma reduction and access improvement.

Additionally, Ms. Dualle has recently been accepted to NALA 2023 cohort and was elected to serve as North Linden Area Commissioner in 2022. Furthermore, Ms. Dualle volunteers with many Central Ohio organization, including Ohio Department of Health Disparities and Cultural Competency Advisory Committee (DACC); Franklin County and Columbus Medical Reserve Corps; and Somalia's Scaling Up Nutrition Advisory Committee.