

Elfi Di Bella

Elfi Di Bella is senior vice president and director of community affairs for Huntington Bancshares Incorporated and director of the Huntington Foundation. She is responsible for Huntington's philanthropic giving and coordination of volunteer efforts. Ms. Di Bella serves as corporate liaison to community organizations and programs in Central Ohio.

Ms. Di Bella earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Franklin University and is the recipient of the American Red Cross' 1999 Stecker International Service Award. She serves on the Community Shelter Board of Trustees; the Columbus School for Girls Board of Trustees; the Columbus Metropolitan Club Board of Trustees, and the Leadership Columbus Board of Trustees. In addition, she is a member of the Columbus Arts Stabilization Committee and the Prevent Blindness Ohio - Nominating Committee.

Elfi Di Bella is originally from Idar-Oberstein, Germany