Nancy Rhynard
Appointed full term expires July 2018

A Columbus native, now residing in Brown Township with her two teenage children, Nancy has been involved in Hilltop Community efforts since 2005 to include commercial property ownership. Her civic volunteerism includes starting the Highland West Merchants and Residents Blockwatch, active roles in the Hilltop Business Association as Treasurer and Economic Development issues primarily on the West Broad and neighboring corridors. Past member of the Columbus Board of Realtors, Nancy's philosophy in community strength is bringing commercial business and residents together to build vitality in the community.

A graduate of Otterbein College and Master's from The Ohio State University, Nancy spent 17 years teaching college and continues with active roles in youth activities, 4-H, and scholarship foundations for youth. Currently GHAC chair of Liquor Ad Hoc Committee.
