Dear Ms. Fowler,

This letter is to clarify sources for the microwave equipment for the City of Columbus Microwave System from Aviat Networks. Aviat Networks is the sole manufacturer and approved repair provider of this equipment, and City of Columbus buys this equipment directly from Aviat at a significant cost savings. Aviat does not have agreements with, license, or allow resale of this proprietary technology to or through other American vendors. All warranty quotes or agreements with the City of Columbus will not be offered or sold or quoted to any other company or individual.

Sincerely,

Rick Wallace
