Mr. Duckett's successful entrepreneurship started over twenty five years ago in various business endeavors. At the age of 21, he owned and operated a barber and beauty salon in the heart of downtown Columbus. Over the years, he has opened five thriving barber shops and beauty salons across central Ohio. Most recently in 2015 with E'voluer Barber Studio located in the King-Lincoln Historic District at 705 East Long Street.

In 1994, Rick continued using his business savvy by rehabbing various properties in low-income areas throughout Columbus. In 2000, he opened a property management company, R Vision, to offer affordable housing in the inner city. Over the years, he has managed many properties in the Near East Side and throughout the Columbus area.

Mr. Duckett is looking to the future of the Near East Side. In 2014, he and his partners established Heart & Soul, a promotions company which promotes local businesses and entertainment giving the community an opportunity to see what the Near East Side has to offer.

Rick is not only a successful business man in the area, he is a homeowner as well. He has owned several homes in Olde Town East since 1990 and currently resides on Winner Avenue. His vested interest in becoming a Commissioner At-Large is to be a part of the revitalization which has been his long-time dream of seeing this area develop to its full potential. He believes this is one of the best areas in Columbus to live, work and play.

Mr. Duckett is a long time member of the Long Street and Mount Vernon Business Associations.
