

Linda Kanney
971 Washington Street
Pickerington, Ohio 43147
lindakanney@sbcglobal.net

Professional Profile:

- Retired human services professional with 34-years of service with YWCA Parkersburg, WV and YWCA Columbus, Ohio as Director of Women's Programs and Program Operations, Director of Racial Justice and Vice President of Human Resources; Peer Review and Mission Compliance Officer for YWCA Great Lakes Alliance Region;
- Former Board President IMPACTSafety, a non-profit organization that trains women, men and children on awareness, boundary-setting, verbal skills and self-defense. Helped negotiate a successful merger of IMPACTSafety with LifeCare Alliance, the largest provider of Meals on Wheels and services to low-income seniors;
- Member LifeCare Alliance Strategic Planning Committee;
- Vice President Council of Ohio YWCAs;
- Facilitator and Train-the-Trainer Racial Justice Dialogues;
- National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. (NC100BW) Board of Directors;
- Charter President and Immediate Past President NC100BW, Inc. Central Ohio Chapter;
- Former President of NC100BW, Inc. Columbus Chapter;
- Member Women's Public Policy Network;
- Mentor Columbus Public Schools;
- Member Rise Sister Rise Girls Think Tank;
- Member Women Coming Together/International Women's Day Collective;
- United State of Women Curriculum Committee;
- Volunteer Planned Parenthood Central Ohio;
- Member Faith Ministries Church Health and Clothing Ministries

Skills & Abilities:

Racial Justice Trainer & Facilitator
Human Resources Consultant
Strategic Planning Consultant
Program Development Specialist
Peer Evaluator
Theory of Change Facilitator

Education:

West Virginia State College, Institute, West Virginia
Columbus State Community College, Columbus, Ohio
Franklin University, Columbus, Ohio

Personal:

Native of West Virginia; resident of Pickerington, Ohio
20-year breast cancer survivor