Profile

Mrs. Burleson has lived in Columbus since 1986 and is currently a Safety Consultant for the State of Ohio BWC in the Safety and Hygiene Unit. She has been active in working with neighbors to address the issues of crime, property neglect, drugs and gangs. She believes that a person working in concert with others can speak louder and more effectively than alone; and wants to have access to City officials who can effect change and allocate resources to communities. Mrs. Burleson is a member of the Worthington Chorus and enjoys gardening, pond building and attending yard sales.
