

Brett Kaufman, CEO- Kaufman Development

Brett Kaufman, founder and CEO, has been working in real estate development and investing in various asset types—both through the investment banking and development lens—for more than 15 years. During this time, he has developed, leased and/or sold over 10,000 homes and a variety of commercial, retail, land and office projects. His accomplishments have not gone unnoticed. He was twice named Developer of the Year by the Building Industry Association (BIA); is past president of the Columbus Apartment Association; and serves on many civic boards throughout Central Ohio. In 2012, he was named Next Generation Builder of the Year by the BIA.
