

Mr. Glacken began his VA Career in 1980 as a Social Worker at the VA Medical Center in Lebanon, PA. He then served as a Social Worker at the Columbus VA Ambulatory Care Center from 1980 to 1986 and as the Coordinator of the Columbus VA Mental Health Clinic from 1986 to 1989. Mr. Glacken relocated to the VA Medical Center in Providence, RI where he served as Coordinator of the Outpatient Psychiatry Section from 1989 to 1993. He also served as the Assistant Chief, Social Work Service at the VA Pittsburgh Healthcare System from 1993 to 1996 and as the Vice-President, Community Base Care Service Line from 1996 to 1999. Mr. Glacken graduated from the Pennsylvania State University with a degree in Sociology and Social Welfare in 1978, and Marywood University with a Masters Degree in Social Work in 1979.

Contact Information

John Glacken
Associate Director
VA Ambulatory Care Center
420 N. James Road
Columbus, Ohio 43219

Phone: 614 257-5454

Email: John.Glacken2@VA.Gov