

DAVID J. CAREY
375 W. 2nd Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43201
(646) 957-4765
david.j.carey@gmail.com

EDUCATION

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, New York, NY

J.D., May 2009

Honors: Annual Survey of American Law, Articles Editor (2008-09), Staff Editor (2007-08),
Note Writing Program (2007-08)

Robert McKay Scholar (Top 25% of the class after four semesters)

Academic Careers Research Fellowship

Note: Reliability Discarded: The Irrelevance of the Medical Exception to Hearsay in Post-Crawford Confrontation Clause Jurisprudence, 64 N.Y.U. Ann. Surv. Am. L. 653 (2009)

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY, Williamsburg, VA

B.A. in History, magna cum laude and High Honors in History, Phi Beta Kappa, May 2006

Second Major: Philosophy Minor: Classical Civilization

Thesis: The Burden of Memory: German Holocaust Memorialization 1945-2006

Honors: James Monroe Scholar (research grant for students in top 10% of incoming class)

Dean's List (five semesters)

Study Abroad: Hertford College, University of Oxford, England (Spring 2005)

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

HARRISON WEST SOCIETY, Columbus, OH

Planning and Development Chair, August 2017-present; Vice President, June 2015-October 2017;

Member, January 2014-present

Liaise with developers navigating zoning variance process in Harrison West neighborhood, including identifying relevant portions of Harrison West Plan and other guidance documents, and providing feedback for proposals. Supervise development presentations and discussions at public and executive committee meetings. Serve as point of contact for City officials on development issues, including UIRF, allocation of area TIF, and development proposals. As Vice President, chaired executive committee meetings, substituted for President at public meetings, and managed agenda.

SHORT NORTH FOUNDATION, Columbus, OH

Vice President, February 2018-August 2018; Harrison West Representative, September 2014-August 2018

Present updates from Harrison West Society to related neighbor organizations. Engage in discussions on matters of community-wide interest, including voting to recommend grant allocations to constituent groups and neighborhood projects.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION OF OHIO FOUNDATION, Columbus, OH

Senior Staff Attorney, September 2018-present

Litigate civil liberties and civil rights cases in Ohio state and federal court, from case intake and development through trial and appeal. Devise case strategies and legal arguments, investigate underlying facts, and handle all aspects of ensuing litigation. Coordinate volunteer attorneys and supervise paralegals, law clerks, and junior staff. Engage with public as part of educational outreach role, including panel discussions on Ohio redistricting and parole system.

THOMPSON HINE LLP, Columbus, OH

Associate, Business Litigation, July 2012-August 2018

Practiced in business litigation and product liability litigation groups, handling broad range of business torts and contract disputes. Conducted and supervised all aspects of litigation from pre-filing investigation and strategy through appeal. Devised overarching case strategies, drafted all categories of pleadings and briefs at trial and appellate levels, conducted oral arguments, prepared and deposed witnesses, managed electronic discovery, consulted with and prepared expert witnesses. First-chair trial experience. Routinely supervised junior attorneys and paralegals. Active pro bono practice in constitutional and civil rights law.

SIDLEY AUSTIN LLP, New York, NY

Associate, Complex Commercial Litigation, January 2011-July 2012; Summer Associate, May-August 2008

Worked on complex commercial litigation matters including SEC enforcement, bankruptcy, antitrust litigation, and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act litigation. Drafted motions and briefs, drafted deposition and witness examination outlines, performed legal research and drafted memoranda, and managed electronic discovery. In pro bono capital habeas appeal in Alabama, prepared witnesses, drafted portions of petition for relief, and assisted at evidentiary hearing. Drafted opinion of disciplinary panel regarding attorney's application for reinstatement to the New York bar.

PROFESSOR BARRY FRIEDMAN, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, Woodbridge, VA

Research Assistant, November 2009-December 2010

Position accepted pro bono under a fellowship from Sidley Austin LLP. Wrote popular and academic articles and research memoranda in criminal procedure, criminal law, constitutional law, and legal history. Topics included constitutionality of health care reform, the creation of the USA-PATRIOT Act and other surveillance laws, and Fourth Amendment compliance of police search and seizure guidelines.

PROFESSOR RACHEL BARKOW, NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, New York, NY

Research Assistant, May-August 2007

Conducted legal research for a study linking limitations of arbitrary action in administrative law with the decline of pardons and commutations in criminal justice. Performed survey research of capital punishment in the United States, including impact of victim and offender race on likelihood of capital sentencing.