

Su Lok, Director, Corporate and Community Partnerships, The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company

Su's professional career has covered more than 20 years in corporate communications. Her PR experience has included work in a variety of industry categories, including telecommunications, manufacturing, financial services and consumer goods. A seasoned communications professional, her background encompasses campaign and institutional media relations, community relations, employee communications, executive communications, corporate reputation management, brand marketing support and organizational development management.

In her current role at The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company, Su is responsible for the Company's key business and philanthropic partnerships. Prior to joining Scotts, she held communication positions with AT&T, Lucent Technologies and Huntington National Bank.

A central Ohio native, Su earned a bachelor's degree in Journalism from The Ohio State University. She serves on the Boards of the Mount Carmel Foundation and the central Ohio chapter of the International Association of Business Communicators.