To whom it may concern,

This letter is to confirm that Speedware Inc. is the sole owner of the Speedware Suite of Business Intelligence tools including Media, Media Web, Esperant, Esperant Web and Decision Server, and therefore the sole vendor capable of licensing these products and/or performing any related Business Intelligence services or support. Speedware Inc. is solely responsible for the development, distribution, support and maintenance of the Speedware Suite of software.

Additionally, I wish to inform you that Speedware has not made the Business Intelligence Suite of tools available to any distributors or resellers. Therefore no other party may lawfully license this software to end users or deploy it in a consulting engagement or provide any other related services or support.

Any company, aside from Speedware Inc., possessing or utilizing these tools in a commercial or consulting setting without a license from Speedware, is acting unlawfully. Speedware will strive to enforce its legal rights against any unauthorized use of its intellectual property.

Andy Kulakowski
President, Chief Executive Officer
