

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH PAUL LOVE

Statistics: I was born December 31, 1928 in Columbus, Ohio and lived on the west side on the Hilltop area until I became involved with selling new construction (G.I. Homes) from 1953 to 1955. I worked with Ohio State Homes and Pioneer Homes from June 1953 to June 1955 building 47 homes for the G.I. Market in the Linden area. My responsibilities were to acquire the lots, secure plan approval, lot site and appraisals for V.A. Commitment. Then I marketed the homes, took loan applications, and attended the closing.

1955: I secured my Broker's license and opened my own Real Estate Company at 4343 N. High Street under the name Love Realty, Inc. I marketed new homes, existing homes and handled lot sales. My previous market was Clintonville, North and Northeast areas.

1966: I built my office building at 3212 N. High Street with 12-15 agents.

1978: Attended Ohio State University and secured my G.R.I. Designation (Graduate Real Estate Insutitute).

1980: I built the office building at 3468 N. High Street

1994 - Present: My building is presently occupied by Coldwell Banker King Thompson, which I am in Co-Management position as well as sales.

2001 – Present: Member of the North Area Real Estate Association and House & Garden Committee

2002: Community Service Aware for Coldwell Banker King Thompson for the year 2002.

2005-2006: Served on the Board of Realtors for Clintonville Chamber of Commerce Development Committee

Member of the Committee for the ribbon Cutting Ceremony (December 3rd) for the High Street Improvement.

Activities:

- A. Served 4 different terms as Trustee of Columbus Board of Realtors and State Association.
- B. Charter member of 3 Area Realtor Associations and past president of same.
- C. Founded the "Clintonville on High" program for area businesses.
- D. Charter member of the Clintonville Chamber of Commerce.
- E. Actively involved in Clintonville Area Commission meetings (i.e. zoning and new business sites).
