

TIMOTHY P. GALVIN
President

Tim Galvin is responsible for leadership of Brexton's core values and mission as well as management and administration of all consulting, construction management, general construction, Pre development and company operations. His project involvement includes business development, front-end project management, and helping clients set realistic goals and then assuring that project goals are met.

Tim attended Marion Technical College, Columbus State Community College and Ohio State University. He received his Ohio real estate sales license in 1988.

Since graduating from high school, Tim has worked for The State of Ohio, Bird & Bull Engineers, Turner Construction Company and Continental Companies before co-founding Equity in 1989. After spending 13 years as President of Equity, building it from 2 employees with 1.5 million dollars in revenue, to nearly 40 employees with over 50 million dollars in revenue, opening offices in multiple cities. Tim incorporated Brexton in the spring of 2001, bringing over 3 decades of construction, engineering and real estate development experience to the Brexton team.

Tim has experience with a wide range of construction and development projects throughout the United States since starting in the industry in 1973, including land development and planning, high rise structures, hospitals, historic renovations, hospitality, multi-family, retail facilities, suburban office buildings (with an emphasis on healthcare), and worship facilities.

He is currently Past President of the Ohio Associated General Contractors of America (AGC), past Chairman of the Central Ohio (AGC), serves on the AGC Project Delivery System Committee, AGC Marketing Committee, served on many other AGC committees and projects since 1986, Central Ohio Builders Exchange active member (BX), American Institute of Architects active associate member (AIA), Grandview Marble Cliff Area Chamber of Commerce (GMCCOC) active committee member, appointed by Mayor Coleman to The City of Columbus Building Services Review Committee (BSRC) to help make the City more development friendly, as well as having served on the Diocesan Building Commission (DBC) for the Bishop of Columbus from 1996 to 2003. He is a past member of the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC), Construction Financial Management Association (CFMA), National, Ohio and Columbus Board of Realtors, Columbus Commercial Industrial Investment Realtors (CCIIR), Building Officials and Code Administrators International member (BOCA) and Columbus Chamber of Commerce (CCC).

He is an active member of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church, serving on the parish building committee, Third order Victory Council Knights of Columbus, St. Francis Xavier Beneficial Society, Cum Christo of Columbus, and CBMC Forum. He and his family reside in Grandview Heights, Ohio where he was an active coach in several sports for many years.