

Bio

Lee D. Adamantidis
Pella Company
52 East 15th Avenue
Columbus, OH 43201

Lee is an owner/partner in the Pella Company, a property development and management company that has developed projects in the University area, Victorian/Italian Village, and elsewhere; an investment totaling over tens of millions of dollars. Lee has been involved in these communities for over four decades. He is one of the leading landowners in the area, both in residential property and commercial properties on High Street. He has continuously been involved in community and city initiatives to improve the area; including the 1987 zoning overlay, which resulted in the establishment of the University Area Review Board. Since serving on the Board since 1990.