

Wallace O. McLean Biography

Wallace O. McLean was born in Broadway, North Carolina. He moved to Columbus, Ohio at the age of 22 while he served in the Army Reserves.

He was employed by The Ohio State University, Westinghouse and finally retired in 1997 from Buckeye Steel after 31 years.

Mr. McLean is the owner of McLean Hauling LLC and McLean Properties, investing in the community he lives in. As a resident and business owner in the American Addition (Amer Crest), he is dedicated to his community. He volunteers his time and services to help keep his community clean with snow removal and picking up trash in the area. Wallace is also a faithful member of Trinity Baptist Church, serving on the Usher Board and Brother Power Ministry. He donates much of his time and resources to help the homeless and elderly.

As a proud member of his community, Mr. McLean was elected to the North Central Area Commission as Commissioner-At-Large where he also holds the office of Parliamentarian.

Mr. McLean's list of community accomplishments include:

- Neighborhood Cleanups and grass cutting
- Helping Homeport to rebuild his neighborhood by assisting with the new housing developments
- Working in the American Addition Community Garden
- Employing workers from the community
- Member of the Mayor's Green Team and Waste Reduction Committee
- Member of Greater Linden development Corporation
- Member of Greater Linden Business Association