

JOSHUA CORNA
President
Corna Kokosing Construction Company

Josh Corna is President of Corna Kokosing Construction Company. Upon graduating from Ohio University, he has been working full-time in the construction industry for more than 20 years. Josh has worked in all capacities of the company including as a laborer, superintendent, project engineer, project manager and senior vice president. As president, Josh oversees the daily operations of the company and plays a significant role in business development efforts.

Josh is currently President of the Board of Directors for the Builders Exchange of Central Ohio (BX) and sits on the Board of Trustees for the Central Ohio Associated General Contractors (AGC), COSI's Community Board and the Mount Carmel Foundation Board. He is a past Board Member for Leadership Columbus and was a past appointed Council Member of the Ohio State Apprenticeship Council in the Department of Job and Family Services.

He is an active volunteer. He has served on the Bishop Watterson High School Facility Planning Committee and the Planning Committee for the Catholic Diocese of Columbus' Bishop's Golf Outing. He has also volunteered for such organizations as the Down Syndrome Association of Central Ohio; Nationwide Children's Hospital; Habitat for Humanity; and the Columbus Health Department.

He was a member of the 2002 graduating class of Leadership Columbus and a member of Columbus Business First's "Forty Under 40" class of 2010.

Josh lives in Upper Arlington, Ohio with his wife Amy and three children: daughter (Julia), and two sons (Quinn & Zachary). Josh and his family are members of St. Andrew Catholic Church in Upper Arlington.