Originally from Salem, Ohio, I moved to Columbus in 2013 and the University District in 2015. I went to school at The University of Akron where I obtained my Bachelors and Masters of Science in civil engineering. My professional experience is in transportation, primarily with roadway design. I achieved my Professional Engineering license, P.E., in 2017 and have been involved in numerous projects throughout Ohio and Columbus ranging from urban interstate design and storm sewer improvements to shared use paths and pedestrian facilities. I plan on bringing my professional experience and knowledge of transportation to the University Area Commission.
