

- 1830 Bryden Avenue
 Conceptual streetscape to delineate public versus private space and to improve active street environment. HIBA will be responsible for the development of the streetscape. The streetscape will be built on private property, and to be built in conjunction with the building. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street.
- Bryden Road
 Conceptual streetscape to delineate public versus private space and to improve active street environment. HIBA will be responsible for the development of the streetscape. The streetscape will be built on private property, and to be built in conjunction with the building. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street.
- Academy Park
 Conceptual streetscape to delineate public versus private space and to improve active street environment. HIBA will be responsible for the development of the streetscape. The streetscape will be built on private property, and to be built in conjunction with the building. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street.
- Academy Park on Bryden Road
 Conceptual streetscape to delineate public versus private space and to improve active street environment. HIBA will be responsible for the development of the streetscape. The streetscape will be built on private property, and to be built in conjunction with the building. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street.
- Eastman Street
 Conceptual streetscape to delineate public versus private space and to improve active street environment. HIBA will be responsible for the development of the streetscape. The streetscape will be built on private property, and to be built in conjunction with the building. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street. The streetscape will be built on the west side of the street.
- Notes:
- 1. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 2. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 3. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 4. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 5. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 6. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 7. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 8. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 9. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).
 - 10. A design fee to maintain the landscape and pick up the trash should be collected by the business owner (Business Improvement District).

CONCEPTUAL STREETSCAPE PLAN