RESUME

Eve Crego (Al-- husband of 57 years)

Al and I have lived in Willow Creek since September 1976. The two of us have always worked toward betterment of our community. We have supported the Willow Creek residents Association and tried to keep a watchful eye on the community, in support of safety, security and healthy improvement for out many residents.

Serving on the commission in and for our community would be an honor in support of stability and continuance of safety for our neighbors. Pollution, traffic safety, keeping down crime by being observant of illegal activities, encouraging our neighbors to keep their property values up through care and cleanliness of their homes.

Whether serving on the commission or not we still live here and will support positive activity for our neighborhood.
