Commissioner Profile

Ms. Cross and her partner purchased a home, their first, in North Linden in 2010. Through the process of applying to serve as a commissioner, she met many neighbors and learned a great deal about the area's opportunities and challenges. Ms. Cross looks forward to working with the residents of North Linden, Columbus City Council and the business/development community to help capitalize on the opportunities of an ever-growing metropolis, while preserving the character and friendly neighborhoods of North Linden.

Ms. Cross earned a Master's of Art in Public Policy and Management from John Glenn School of Public Affairs at OSU in 2012. She is very active in community service projects in Columbus. Since 2010, she has served as a Chairperson for United Way of Central Ohio's Pride Gives affinity group. She also served as Board of Trustees President and Chair for the Clintonville Community Market.

Ms. Cross works for the Columbus Bar Association as the Continuing Legal Education Program Coordinator. She produces substantive seminars for Central Ohio's legal professionals. Shortly after joining the CBA, Ms. Cross played a leading role in the formation of its LGBT Law Committee; the first of its kind in the state of Ohio.

In 2012, Ms. Cross was awarded a Brigadier General Mark E. Bartman ATAG Challenge Coin. Awarded by Brigadier General Mark E. Bartman, Ohio Air National Guard and the A-3 Assistant to the Director, Air National Guard, in recognition of service to the ANG for her work on a project designed to build a population of legal professionals ready to assist military service members. She hopes to do more to support military active duty members and veterans in her capacity as a commissioner.

Ms. Cross' professional affiliations include: The Center for Progressive Leadership, of which she is a Political Leaders Fellow; Project Management Institute; and American Constitution Society. Prior to moving to Columbus in 2008, she managed non-profit service and philanthropic organizations in Philadelphia from 2005. Ms. Cross received a Bachelor's of Art in Anthropology, with honors, from Temple University in 2004.
