Short Bio:

My name is Benjamin Watkinson and I have lived in Columbus Ohio for all of my life. Currently, I live in a wooded neighborhood with about four other families within Franklin Township. I attend Columbus Preparatory Academy, a moderate size charter school that frequently is rated one of the best in the state. CPA has given me the opportunity to participate in college classes facilitated by Columbus State. At the moment, I am enrolled in three of these classes: an introduction to education, psychology, and American history from the Reconstruction era to The Cold War. In my household, we frequently discuss politics along with other societal concerns. We try to keep up on the news about our county and city; my great uncle was a Franklin Township trustee for 23 years, which gave us some first-hand knowledge of challenges local leaders have to deal with. In foresight, I see myself pursuing a career in something technical; however, I have not decided which area I will get involved with.
