

Performance Consulting Services (PCS) is proficient in designing and delivering customized training programs and initiatives to address the specific and general needs of the individual, group, team, and organization.

Proprietary Notice

This proposal is to be used solely for the purpose of presenting Performance Consulting Services proposal for services and is for internal use only. This information is not intended for any use or sharing with others outside of this purpose or sharing with other consultants, companies, or organizations. If Performance Consulting Services is not selected to partner with your organization, no portion of this information can be used. Any other use of this material violates Performance Consulting Services copyrights, licenses, and its intended purpose. Performance Consulting Services also respects the fact that any information provided by City of Columbus, Department of Public Utilities, in pursuit of this proposal will be treated as confidential, unless otherwise specified.

Performance Consulting Services proposes the following leadership development training strategies designed to create a high-performance workplace culture of excellence; a workplace culture where excellence in leadership performance, process management and employee/client engagement is paramount. This training outlines our strategy in assisting your organization's leaders in moving from good to leadership excellence.

PRELIMINARY TRAINING STRATEGY

The Evolving Leader Development initiative is designed to provide tools, strategies, and techniques to increase the depth and capacity in becoming a more impactful leader through professional self-awareness and competence, individual and workplace team engagement and management and organizational success.