

CYNTHIA HAYES, AIA

Project Architect/Construction Administrator

EDUCATION

Masters of Architecture, The Ohio State University, 1993
Bachelors of Science, Architecture, University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee, 1982

REGISTRATION

Architect, Illinois

Cynthia has 18 years of wide-ranging experience as an architect, project manager and construction administrator. She is also the firm's CAD coordinator.

RELEVANT PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Red Roof Inn, Nationwide Boulevard, Columbus, OH conversion and renovation of downtown warehouse to create 77,000 sq. ft., 150-room hotel. Included adding one floor and inserting another, installing track elevators, and creating meeting rooms and breakfast area off the lobby

Children's Orthopedic Medical Clinic, Columbus, OH
complete architectural and interior design services for a new, 11,480 sq. ft. stucco and steel building for 20 exam rooms and two X-ray rooms. Interior design work incorporates children-friendly themes and features based on reading and education motifs

Grant Medical Center, Emergency Department, Columbus, OH programming and redesign of Emergency Department, Urgent Care, Observation Unit and Cardiac Care, including new Trauma Suite. Work completed while department remained fully functional

Tri-County Local Schools, Lewisburg, OH
services to design a high school addition, which includes classrooms and a new media center. Services also to provide site lighting improvements for the elementary school playground, and design a separate athletic field house facility for wrestling, weight lifting and athletic equipment storage

Maryhaven, Columbus, OH
architectural services for the design of a new 67,000 sq. ft. replacement building

Red Roof Inns: prototype development and architectural services for more than 200 inns in 30 states

Jacobs Bros. Bagels, Chicago, IL*

architectural and construction administration services to renovate a variety of spaces, including retail, office, unused spaces into restaurants. Projects included creating company-wide computer network

Memorial Hospital, South Bend, IN*

renovation of existing space, and construction of new surgical center

Fire Station, Portage County, Portage County, IN*

design and construction administration services for new volunteer fire station

*Projects completed with other firms