Elaine, these are the debts we met about on 8-11-2011. Two of them are damage claims for AEP from the 2008 Hurricane winds, and one August of 2009 debt from a fire that Frankenmuth Insurance denied paying for the fire to their insured's building that was under construction.

Per Assistant City Attorney, Nancy Weidman, these debts are past the statute requirement for filing a law suit. Our office advises these be written off.

If you have any questions, call Nancy Weidman.

Thanks
