Cheryl Stafford – Remington Ridge (MAC)

I was born and raised in Columbus. Our family lived in a neighborhood in southeast Columbus, built in the late 1940's for Black service men, called Hanford Village, still exist today. I have been a resident of the Remington Ridge neighborhood and a member of our HOA for 18 years. Currently, I am also a 1st year commissioner with the Mideast Area Commission (MAC). I first learned about the MAC thru a zoning issue with a commercial property at the rear edge of my home property. The MAC notified and invited me to the zoning hearing because of the proximity of our properties. If it wasn't for the MAC the welfare and tranquility of my home could have been compromised. Thus, I inquired about the MAC and the Cols. Dept. of Neighborhoods. I began attending the MAC meetings and was later asked to join the MAC and represent my Remington Ridge community. I believe in and strongly support the work of the MAC and all the neighborhood commissions. We provide an ear for our communities and a strong, effective Voice of our concerns to the city of Columbus. The commissions give our neighborhoods vital information, security and opportunities to work together to provide safe and healthy communities. I am a retired CPS early education teacher. I have 2 adult daughters and 2 grandchildren.

I received my Bachelors and Master's degrees from our Ohio State University. In spite of several negative issues over the years, I love the development and expansion of our beautiful Columbus and I truly enjoy and am proud to be a MAC commissioner.
