

KAREN MCCOY, FASLA, PLA

PRINCIPAL, LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT, PUBLIC GARDENS ADVISOR

Karen has been creating beautiful, artful, sustainable, places for human interaction and respite throughout her four-decade career. Karen's belief in the power, inspiration, and healing attributes of landscapes that are accessible to all, has shaped her work.

Karen has provided design leadership on specialty gardens, urban parks and streetscapes, entertainment venues, and cultural campuses that highlight the cultural heritage and spirit of a place while enhancing visitor experience. Her creative talents and professional drive push past standard solutions successfully addressing design, project function and construction budget. In addition to her established project experience with parks, urban planning, cultural destinations, she has extensive experience with historic building sites and enhanced accessibility, Karen's work has been recognized with numerous professional awards.
