

Jennie Keplar Bio

The Keplar Family's history in the Hilltop goes back to the post-WWII era, settling on Union and S. Richardson Aves. Jennie Keplar is a 2nd generation Greater Hilltop Area Commissioner and Hilltop historian who is deeply passionate about the community. She is a West High grad (Class of '92) and former Otterbein University Theatre Performance major. She is the creator of the Hilltop USA Memories and Hilltop Property Archive groups on Facebook, and co-creator of LGBTQ+ Columbus History Database, also on Facebook. Her passion lies in fostering a welcoming and equitable community that honors and respects people from all walks of life.
