EXTENDED ENHANCED WARRANTY COVERAGE

Scope of Coverage for Quote SER 0313-021 rev0

FLIR Radiation offers extended enhanced warranties on its products for up to the lifetime of the product from the products initial purchase. These warranties can be purchased at the sale of the equipment or anytime within its initial warranty. These warranties ensure that the product is always protected against unexpected costs that may occur.

Scope of Coverage

- Unlimited telephone technical support with priority response
- Priority turnaround time
- Unlimited number of instrument repairs due to normal use, wear and tear. Including parts and labor. Unlike with other 3rd party extended warranties, detectors are included!
- Repair or replacement of defective parts and accessories
- One (1) free preventative maintenance (optimization) for each year of coverage (A total of two (2) optimizations). Items included in the preventative maintenance include:
 - o Full evaluation of product, parts and accessories
 - o Check internal Cs-137 calibration source for containment integrity
 - o Replacement of internal backup battery
 - o Replacement of rechargeable batteries
 - o Modification of internal hardware to the latest approved revision level (includes needed electronic components)
 - o Software/firmware update to the latest approved revision level
 - o Adjustment of device parameters, calibration and renewal of background spectrum of internal Cs-137 source for optimal identification results
 - o Optimization of linearity for optimal identification results
 - o Optimization of gamma dose rate
 - o Optimization of neutron count rate
 - o Check identification performance with the following nuclides; Am-241, Ba-133, Co-57, Co-60, Cs-137, Eu-152, Mn-54, Na-22, Ra-226 and Th-232
 - o Check energy resolution of scintillation detector

When does your coverage start?

The repair and maintenance services quoted on quote SER 0313-021 would need to be paid in full prior to warranty begin. Enhanced warranty coverage would then begin upon receipt of payment of $24,800.00
