

Doreen Uhas-Sauer

2111 Iuka Avenue Columbus, Ohio 43201 (614)477-1124 doreencolumbus@icloud.com

Current professional employment/volunteerism:

- Retired from Columbus City Schools
 - Education and Outreach Coordinator, Columbus Landmarks, 57 Jefferson Avenue, Columbus 43215
 - Consultant for WOSU Columbus Neighborhoods; variety of companies (Italian Village, South Side) seeking historical research for branding purposes; the Ohio Department of Education; several nonprofits/universities for international civic education and engagement; Ohio Humanities scholar
 - State Historic Preservation Office Board Member; Ohio Historical Newspaper Foreign Newspaper Digitalization Advisory Board; Green Lawn Cemetery Board Member; Kelton House Underground Railroad Committee and Education Committee; Fort Hayes Metropolitan Education Center, faculty emeritus/consultant (volunteer)
 - Currently researching segregation, industrial, and migration patterns that effected Milo-Grogan, Linden, Northland, and South Side; serving in a leadership role for centennial planning of women's suffrage locally and state-wide; researching histories of High Street and Green Lawn Cemetery for possible OSU Press publications; working on publication of Landmarks of Columbus (due Spring 2020), and working with Columbus Metropolitan Library, South Side businesses, Hungarian and Croatian communities, and Jewish Historical Society for digitizing additional materials related to cultural history of South Side (Small Things Remembered)
-

Previous employment history:

2004-2008 Columbus City Schools, Project Director, Columbus Civic Education Model, Annenberg Foundation, and Director for Teaching American History grants for Columbus Schools

1988-2004 Columbus City Schools, Fort Hayes Metropolitan Education Center, Fort Hayes Arts & Academic High School, classroom teacher in American history, AP European history, American and British literature; grants writer and coordinator for all Fort Hayes service learning projects (including the restoration of the city-owned WPA Emerson Burkhart mural from Central High School); grants writer and teacher leader for multiple humanities and arts grants, including original theatrical and musical performances at State House, "Voices from the Square;" and co-developer of "River Speaks," linking historical, environmental, and urban planning issues in Columbus with 27 schools in Poland and 17 in Lithuania.

1968-1988 Columbus City Schools, Indianola Junior (later Middle) School, classroom teacher, grades 7-9, Social Studies, English, special program for students behind one or more grades, Project Move Ahead

Con-current teaching employment Columbus City Schools: teacher at Central Evening School and North Adult Education Center; Capital University: instructor for University Without Walls program in art and architecture; Otterbein University: faculty member for comparative literature programs for teachers; Ohio State University: instructor for Institute for the Advancement of Arts in Education and field professor for Holmes Partnership in Social Studies; Ohio State's Mershon Center, teacher leader civic engagement in Poland, Ukraine, and Lithuania; Bowling Green State University's Institute for Civic Education, teacher leader civic engagement in Ukraine and Morocco; American Federation of Teachers, consultant for human rights NGOs in Germany; Russell Sage College's Civics Mosaic, teacher leader for Columbus-Moscow civic education exchange program; McCormick Institute on Public Policy, Boston, curriculum writer for homeless awareness; Lesson writer for variety local arts and history groups (Columbus Art Museum, Franklin Park Conservatory, Kelton House) and for Mershon Center, Institute for Civic Education, National Education Association, and Russell Sage College; and City of Columbus, Health Department's Walking Programs, script writer/tour guide for Arts Walks program through 14 neighborhoods

Partial list of relevant community involvement in University District and City of Columbus:

- University Area Commission, current president, serving since 1984 (with the exception of several months) in a variety of positions (commissioner, chair, secretary and as chair of committees or task forces)
- University Community Association, board member, 1986-2012
- Co-author with Pasquale Grado of North Columbus Preservation Plan, funded by City of Columbus
- University District Organization, board member, past president, 1985-present
- Historic Resources Commission, City of Columbus, member, 1989-1997 and later of Appeals Board for HRC
- Community Crime Patrol, founding trustee and board member, 1989-2004
- Urban Infrastructure Recovery Fund Task Force, City of Columbus, 1995-2005
- Iuka Ravine Neighborhood Association, 2015-present
- Council of Historic Neighborhoods, 1995-present
- North Side Development Housing Corporation, board member, 1995-2005 (preceded Weinland Park revitalization)
- University District Design Review Board (University Impact District Review Board), member (representing UAC and now at-large community member), 1992-present
- Member of advisory board to Dr. Gordon Gee, visiting Milwaukee, Temple, Columbia prior to establishment of Campus Partners and Campus Collaborative; Campus Partners Board, member, 1995
- University District Education Committee, co-chair with Dean of College of Education, 1997-2001, which later became The Learning Bridge, Ohio State University, educational collaborative of 13 schools and Ohio State, co-chair with Dean of College of Education, 2001-2004
- (partial list of publications) Co-authored The Ohio State University Neighborhoods, 2009, on behalf of University District Organization; Columbus Neighborhoods: Guide to the Landmarks of Franklinton, Italian Village, German Village, Olde Town East, King-Lincoln, Short North, University District, 2013, on behalf of Columbus Landmarks and WOSU; On This Day in Columbus, 2013, on behalf of Columbus Landmarks; Columbus and Ohio State University, Then and Now, 2009, on behalf of Columbus Landmarks; Historic Columbus Taverns, 2012, on behalf Columbus Landmarks; Historic Hotels of Columbus, 2015, on behalf Columbus Landmarks; Early African American Settlements in Columbus, Ohio: Report to the National Trust, on behalf Columbus Landmarks, 2015
- Co-director with Ohio History Connection for Demon Times, National Endowment for Humanities Landmarks grant, teacher education program on Prohibition, focusing on German settlement and Brewery District with Anti-Saloon League in Westerville
- Authored Bicentennial Guide for Columbus Students, 2011 and Carolyn Brown House, 2016, Design Center
- Director of Culture Walks, Ohio Humanities-funded project, 2016, for Columbus Landmarks and City of Columbus, Public Health; community-led walking tours of King-Lincoln; Bronzeville; West Gate; Hanford Village; and South Parsons Avenue
- Participant on Columbus Comprehensive Plan; Columbus Parks and Recreation Master Plan; University District Area Plans and city-adopted recent revisions; task force and/or planning participant with Hillel, Holy Name Family Center, Ohio History Connection, Northside Library, Southside Development Corporation, United Christian Center
- Authored historical narrative for National Trust and/or City of Columbus successful nominations for Indianola Junior High; Old North Columbus Commercial District; Athletic Club; and Hartman Hotel

Partial List of Recognitions:

First Recipient of Ohio Department of Education's Outstanding Teacher in Service Learning; Ohio Teacher of the Year; Ohio Social Studies Teacher of the Year; Ohio School Board's Outstanding Teacher; Columbus Area Leadership Award; Ohio Historical Society's Award for Preservation Education (twice); Outstanding Alumni, Ohio

State College of Education; Pavey Award for Leadership University District; Martha Holden Jennings Scholar; Nova Doba (Ukraine) Award for Civic Education

Undergraduate work: Bowling Green State University (Ohio) in astronomy/geology with work at University of Salzburg (Austria) in German language and literature, transferred to Ohio State University to complete undergraduate work

Education:

Cleveland Public Schools, John Marshall High School

B.S. in Secondary Education, Ohio State University. Majors in English, history, and political science, Minors in art history and German language and literature

M.A. Renaissance and Reformation history, Ohio State University

Ph.d. Renaissance and Reformation history; Ohio State University and additional post-graduate work in urban history and literature at Brown University; Pacific Theater World War II at Smith College; and urban history at Columbia.