

Christopher S. Long

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Formally and practically trained finance professional who possesses excellent leadership, communication, and problem solving skills.

WORK EXPERIENCE

City of Columbus, Columbus, Ohio [January 2021 - present]

Deputy Director, Department of Finance & Management

- Directs the preparation and administration of the annual operating, capital improvement, and federal grants budgets for the City of Columbus
- Directs the establishment of guidelines, procedures, and reports for various fiscal processes, including: budgetary control, preparation of financial reports, purchase orders, encumbrances, payrolls, and financial forecasting
- Advises the Director and executive, managerial and fiscal staff of problems, issues, and matters relating to departmental finances, and makes recommendations to enhance fiscal effectiveness/efficiency and to ensure the proper allocation of resources

City of Columbus, Columbus, Ohio [May 2011 – January 2021]

Fiscal Officer

- Directs the preparation of the annual general, grant and enterprise funds and the operating and capital improvements budgets for the City of Columbus, Department of Finance & Management
- Establishes guidelines, procedures, and reports for various fiscal processes, including: budgetary control, preparation of financial reports, purchase orders, encumbrances, payrolls, and financial forecasting

Franklin University, Columbus, Ohio [August 2003 – Present]

Adjunct Faculty

- Course instructor for Principles of Finance, Investments, Capstone, and Metrics & Analytics
- Recipient of Franklin University's Star Award and Robert L. Bailey Award for excellence in teaching

ADAMH Board of Franklin County, Columbus, Ohio [April 2005 – May 2011]

Budget Officer

- Monitored financial management systems and developed/administered ADAMH's $145 million annual budget

Alvarez & Marsal, Dublin, Ohio/Chicago, IL [October 2002 – May 2004]

Senior Associate, Asset Recovery

- Co-managed recovery efforts on $200M in outstanding loans to healthcare providers

EDUCATION

The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio [1999 – 2001]

Master of Business Administration; Concentration in Finance

The Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio [1990 – 1994]

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration
