Chairman of Commission's Signature

Commissioner Profile

Tony Howard has been a resident of Columbus all of his life with the exception of his 4 ½ years serving on active duty in the United States Army. He grew up in North Linden and bought a house 4 blocks from where he lived when he was a child. Tony is a Columbus Metropolitan Library Service Area Manager, blending the workforce of the Karl Rd and Northern Lights Branches into one team serving the Northland and North Linden areas of Columbus. His leadership experiences include Military, Drug Retail, and Libraries and an Area Commission. Tony received his Masters Degree in Library and Information Science at Kent State University. In addition to management, Tony's library experiences include children and teen services, information services, and circulation services.
