

Josh has been involved in Franklinton for over 10 years and is grateful to live, work and play on the West Side. His work at Mount Carmel is fueled by his passion to see others achieve and maintain positive lifestyle changes. Beyond his role at the Healthy Living Center, Josh cares to see neighbors and organizations working together to see positive changes in our community. He also serves as a deacon at the Veritas Community Church.