

Bio for Drew Miller – Clintonville Area Commission

Since moving to Clintonville in 2015, Drew has actively engaged with the Clintonville Area Commission, thanks to a neighbor who encouraged his involvement. He has been a volunteer on the Planning and Development committee since 2018 and currently holds the position of vice chair on the Zoning and Variance Committee.

Drew's roots trace back to Dublin, Ohio, and he obtained his bachelor's degree in construction management from The Ohio State University in 2010. He has gained extensive experience working for various local general contractors and real estate development companies as a Project Manager. Furthermore, Drew is set to graduate from Purdue University in December 2023, earning a master's degree in business administration. Drew is a member of the Delta Mu Delta International Honor Society in Business and The National Society of Leadership and Success.
