

Revision
December 2013

Barbara B. Murray was born on December 11, 1939 in Hartford, Connecticut. Upon graduation from Simsbury High School, joined the Women's Army Corps in January 1958 and served until July 1961.

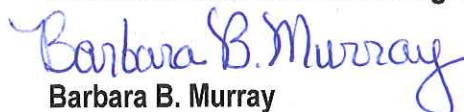

Barbara took basic training at Fort McClellan, Alabama with advanced training at The Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Georgia. After graduation she was assigned to HQ 2d Region, USARADCOM at Fort George G. Meade, MD. Upon discharge in July 1961, she joined the active reserve with assignment at Headquarters, 1050th ARSU Hartford USAR School, Hartford, CT and served until she married and moved out of state in August 1963.

From August 1961 to August 1963, she worked for United Aircraft Corporation in the Research Library East Hartford, CT. In August 1963 she married a career soldier and moved their household thirteen times in the next twenty-one years. Our final move, in 1984, brought us to Columbus, Ohio. Barbara went to work at the USPFO for Ohio, Purchasing and Contracting, Ohio Army and Air National Guard, and retired in March 1998.

While stationed in Germany and across the United States, she worked with community groups, school and church organization, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

Barbara is a member of Chapter 3 Columbus-WAC Veterans Association/ARMY WOMEN UNITED, American Legion Post 239, American Legion Auxiliary Unit 239, DAV Auxiliary Grove City #144, Columbus VA VAVS Committee board member, annual Stand Down volunteer and recruiter/guardian for Honor Flight Columbus.

Barbara is married to Retired Sergeant Major Charles L. Murray. Together they have three children and seven grandchildren.

Barbara B. Murray
2400 Olde Sawmill Blvd.
Dublin, OH 43016-9206

614 766-5935
cbmurray99@aol.com