I have become an active member of my community, making sure I am aware of all upcoming events in the neighborhood and communicating to others who may be unaware. I have made myself available to the commission to assist in any means I can be of help.

I would like to be a commissioner because there is much to be done in the community but there does not seem to be a lot of people willing to help. I have been guilty in the past of complaining about things going on or lack thereof, but never doing anything to change it. I have learned that change begins with me and I am willing to accept that responsibility.

I am now trying to learn how to obtain the tools to serve my community and thus bring about change
