

Commissioner Profile

Commissioner Rev. Hazel Boyd has lived in Columbus for 59 years. She has an outreach ministry that serves all areas of Columbus. Her previous work has been in the church, the community and the political arena. Her community involvements include the P.T.A. and the Senior Beautification Program. Current affiliations include the South Linden Area Commission and the Feed the Children initiative, sponsored by Larry Jones.

Rev. Boyd is listed in the American Women Who's Who publication.