

Diane Nance, Director of Corporate & Foundation Relations at Kenyon College, is a Clintonville resident. For nearly 20 years, Ms. Nance was Vice President for Programs for the Greater Columbus Arts Council, overseeing the agency's grants program and special projects.

With Lori Baudro, Senior Project Coordinator for the City of Columbus Planning Division, Nance co-authored legislation to create a public art program in Columbus. In the mid 1990s, she provided oversight for public art efforts including a three-year, eight-county Save Outdoor Sculpture! Program that resulted in an inventory and initial condition assessment of outdoor public art.

Ms. Nance has served on numerous funding panels for local and state arts agencies, and on committees and conference panels for arts funding and art reviews. For Otterbein College where she is adjunct instructor in the Department of Art, Nance developed the introductory curriculum for the arts administration minor. Ms. Nance held program coordinator positions at the Ohio Arts Council in Grants and Technical Assistance. She completed undergraduate and graduate work in fine arts and the history of art, as well as Arts Policy, at The Ohio State University.
