EXPLANATION OF LEGISLATION

Background: It has been one year since the Columbus City Code has been revised to grant the Director of Recreation and Parks authority to set policy and guidelines for the sale, service and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages at major event venues. Currently alcohol is permitted in the Franklin Park Adventure Center and on the grounds of the Franklin Park Conservatory. Most alcoholic beverages sold during events are served and sold within a tent, trailer or vehicle, not a fixed facility.

By making a few changes to the existing code, we can delete the entire text of (3), renumber the remaining text and , and add the word "Franklin Park" under (4). To advance the City's goal of developing vibrant neighborhoods and accommodate community celebrations within such neighborhoods as Franklin Park, the director of recreation and parks should be permitted by written authorization to allow the sale and consumption of alcoholic beverages on certain occasions when it is of the best interest of the City.
