RESUME

-Education: The Ohio State University Class of 2010, BA in Integrated Social Studies, Westland High School Class of 2006

-Work Experience: Currently I work for Congressman Steve Stivers as a Caseworker in his local district office. While in college I worked for 4 years at the Ohio House of Representatives (06-10) followed by 6 months for Senator David Goodman at the Ohio Senate.

-I want to be a Commissioner because I want to serve my community and make a difference where I live. The Westland area has been my home since birth and I want to continue living here. Boy Scouts and many other activities have always taught me to serve my community and to give back when possible. I feel I can do that in some small part as a Westland Area Commissioner.
