North Central Area Commissioner Candidate Information

Jean E Harbin is the daughter of the late Earl & Emmie Davis. Earl Davis was the co-owner of the radio and record shop adjoining the Lincoln Theater in the 1940s and the family was featured the black publication, Who's Who in America.

Jean learned at an early age about community service from her mother. Emmie Davis was active in the Model City Assembly, neighborhood organizing and the Women/s Charity Club. She assisted Constance Johnson in organizing the first Martin Luther King Breakfast.

Ms. Harbin graduated from Columbus East High School, attended Ohio State University School of Music, Bliss College and Franklin University.

Jean retired from the Defense Construction Supply Center as a Contract Specialist and EEO Counselor. While at DCSC, she was a trainer of new procurement agents. She joined Toastmaster International where she served a Area 13 Governor of five toastmaster's clubs. Presently, she is employed as a seasonal worker with the Franklin County Board of Elections Absentee Department. She has also worked with Poll Workers Placement.

Ms. Harbin is the Democratic Party Central Committee person for Columbus Ward 6. In this role, she works on voter registration, petitions, screening and endorsement of candidates, Jean is a widow, has four children, five grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

She has live on Wildwood for 32 years.
