RESUME

Tina Goodman:

Since 1991 when Tina Goodman first arrived at The Ohio State University, she has been proud to call Columbus home. Throughout her years at OSU, Tina developed a strong passion for the city of Columbus and has loved watching it become the dynamic city it is today. In 1999 she bought her first home, a condo in the German Village. These purchases quickly lead to a career in real estate. She has begun purchasing rental properties in Merion Village, Vassor Village, Schumacher Place and Ganthers Place/SouthSide CAN.

Her belief in the South Side as well as providing affordable housing has become a driving force in her life personally as well as professionally.

Additionally, Tina has become very active in the Schumacher Place Civic Association serving as the Member at Large for the 2008 term and has plans to run for Treasurer for the 2009 term. She is also a member of the German Village Society & the Merion Village Association
