ACTIVITIES

I am a passionate and at times outspoken resident of the NES. Born in Bexley, blossomed in Franklin Park since 2003. This is my home. I’ve raised my kids here. I’ve learned about how to not be hungry here. How to be vulnerable and to grow in my struggles here. I’ve learned about my neighbor’s needs and we have humbled each other when needed. To me that has manifested by:

- Alley clean ups
- Sharing vegetable starts
- Pushing a neighbor’s car when it’s stuck
- Shoveling sidewalks
- Volunteered with Columbus Compact Visioning Sessions for the Old Trolley Barn
- Dropping off food boxes from local pantries
- Gathering prom attire for youth
- Served as a juror for the Greater Columbus Arts Council Neighborhood Arts Connection Grant
- Calling neighbor landlords when they try to unfairly hold onto old tenant’s security deposits
- Picking up dog waste on my block
- Handing out handwarmers in the winter
- Attending People’s Justice Project and protesting racist police policies
- Actively working against systemic racism in housing access
- Informing neighbors of Narcan sites
- Calling code on investors that are taking advantage of our neighborhood
- Working to end an Airbnb Owner from running party houses on my block
- Speaking up when I see injustice
- (Currently attempting to get EBT accepted at the East Market and hoping to find resources for a neighbor facing code enforcement issues due to his property and gardening)
