

Bob McLaughlin
Background Bio

Bob McLaughlin joined with the City's Department of Development in September 2001 from MAS Companies where he served as Senior Vice President. MAS Companies is a real estate development company whose primary focus is developing apartment communities.

Prior to joining with MAS Companies, McLaughlin served as Regional President for Star Bank (now US Bank). From 1986 to 1994 he was with Huntington National Bank and served as Senior Vice President and Manager of Commercial Real Estate Lending.

McLaughlin has previously served 5 years on active duty with the U.S. Navy and is currently retired from the Navy Reserve with the rank of Commander.

In his current capacity McLaughlin serves as the head of the City's Downtown Development Office, which is responsible for the development and revitalization of Downtown. McLaughlin serves as Mayor Coleman's chief strategist in implementing the Mayor's vision for the future of our Downtown, everyone's neighborhood.
