Dear Ms. Howerton:

This letter is to confirm that iReportSource is currently the only company from which the City of Columbus may license iReportSource software products and from which the City of Columbus may obtain technical support, product customization, maintenance and hosting service for such software products.

If you have any questions regarding the above, or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
