

Timothy Mason Sublette
202 King Avenue
Columbus, Ohio 43201
614-745-5435
tsublette@hotmail.com

Born 1953, Roanoke Virginia

Education/Internships:

- BA, English, Duke University, Magna Cum Laude
- MS, Arts Administration, Bolz Center, University of Wisconsin
- North Carolina Arts Council (1976)
- National Endowment for the Arts, Office of Special Constituencies (1977)

Employment:

-1978 to 1984, Greater Columbus Arts Council.

Hired as Grants Administrator, promoted to Assistant and Executive Director.

Accomplishments include policy development of City of Columbus Arts Grants Program, including first general operating support grants; administration of public arts projects; relocation of Columbus Arts Festival to riverfront site. Board positions at this time included Ohio Citizens Committee for the Arts, Americans for the Arts, Columbus Metropolitan Club, Stonewall Union Columbus, Zivili—Songs and Dances of Yugoslavia.

-1984 to Present, Self-employed as Partner, Seekers Antiques.

Recognized traveling retail source for British and American ceramics, 18th to early 20th century. Semi-retired status in 2015; travel circuit discontinued. Activities included lectures to ceramic interest organizations and participation in Decorative Arts Symposium, Virginia Commonwealth University; membership, American Ceramics Circle.

Recent and Current Activities:

- Short North Civic Association. Board member to 2018
- OSU Endocrinology/Diabetes Education Advisory Board to 2020
- Dennison Place Neighborhood Association. Chair, ad hoc committee to reactivate organization 2018; subsequently vice-president and president
- Steering committee for proposed Dennison-McMillan Local Historic District
- University Area Commissioner. Co-chair, zoning committee
- King Avenue Church. History committee