Bio of Candidate for North Central Area Commissioner (or you may attach your Biography or resume):

Mr. Lamar D. Peoples III, is a life-time resident of the North Central Sector of the City of Columbus. Mr. Peoples served most recently as an Advisory Board member with Impact Community Action and an Associate Board Member with the American Red Cross, before being elected to the Board of Directors at Impact Community Action.

Mr. Peoples passion for serving his community is anchored in his Great-Grandmother Catherine Jackson, who was an advocate and leader within her community.

Mr. Peoples wishes to build on the successes of the North Central Area Commission by working to implement the NCA Plan, engaging the Community more in the process and shine a light on abandoned houses in the North Central Area. As a passionate, professional, servant leader, who dedicated to giving back through advocacy and Community Service.
