

Biography of Constance Miller

Constance Miller has been a resident of the Far Southside since 2018 after moving to Central Ohio in 2012 having relocated here from Upstate N.Y. Ms. Miller is a retired business owner who ran her own successful garment manufacturing facility that was revolutionary at the time of its inception as it employed a mostly female staff and was a fully union shop in an industry that was mostly male dominated. Her products were sold in many of the most exclusive fashion shops within the United States while her company provided stable, high paying jobs for women and their families.

Ms. Miller attended Adirondack Community College and has been a lifelong devotee to reading, education and community service programs. She has worked in afterschool activities teaching children in literacy programs, worked with individuals in obtaining their GED, assisted others in establishing their own successful small businesses and acted as a mentor for disadvantaged youth.

Connie, who is widowed, is the proud parent of one son, has three cats and enjoys gardening, reading, working on home improvement projects, and baking. Connie is a member of the Far South Columbus Block Watch, the Scioto Southland Civic Association, and the Marion Franklin Civic Association. She is also a confirmed member of the Episcopal Church.